

Notice of Intent to Submit Referendum Exception Applications
Redbank Valley School District

The Redbank Valley Board of School Directors hereby serves notice that it has authorized the submission of application for any referendum exceptions permitted under Special Session Act1 of 2006 for which the District is eligible to the Pennsylvania Department of Education (PDE). Act 1 of 2006 permits districts to apply for referendum exceptions to provide for an increase in real estate taxes above the state-wide index without voter approval, should anticipated expenses in the upcoming budget year be above the tax rate permitted under the index. The District preliminary 2018-19 budget was approved by the Board of School Directors on February 5, 2018 and is currently over the state-approved Act1 index of 3.5%. Copies of all referendum exception applications are available for public review in the Office of the Superintendent, 920 Broad Street, New Bethlehem, PA 16242, Monday thru Friday between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.
